

MICHELLE L. GREENBERG, ESQ.

Michelle L. Greenberg, Esq., is a Partner in Frier Levitt's litigation department, focusing on healthcare and commercial litigation, as well as substantial personal injury matters. She has developed a comprehensive knowledge of the law in these areas and has been successful in obtaining positive results for her clients. Michelle understands her client's goals and works effortlessly yet aggressively to achieve the objective in an efficient and cost-effective manner.

Michelle has extensive Courtroom experience at the State, Federal and Appellate level and utilizes her legal and persuasive arguments to obtain the best results for her clients including money judgments, injunctive relief, and dismissal of frivolous lawsuits. Michelle also uses her litigation experience and legal knowledge to assist clients in resolving disputes before having to litigate. She has been instrumental in the separation of numerous healthcare practices and businesses without the need for protracted litigation, as well as crafting beneficial settlements of disputes without litigation. Michelle has developed a firm knowledge of the laws relating to restrictive covenants and has successfully argued regarding the enforceability of these provisions.

Along with business disputes, Michelle represents physicians in matters relating to their staff privileges and has challenged suspensions at medical staff hearing.

Separate from her healthcare and commercial experience, Michelle continues to represent clients who have suffered significant injuries, and families of those who have died, as a result the negligence of others. Michelle recently obtained a $10 million settlement for her client who was struck and run over by a New Jersey Transit bus. The quick action in canvassing the scene of the incident for evidence yielded a surveillance video that captured the incident. This proved essential to disputing the bus driver's version of the incident. Likewise, Michelle obtained a multi-million result for the family of a motorcyclist who was struck and killed by a drunk driver.

Michelle aggressively represents her clients, leaves no stone unturned and goes above and beyond to assist her clients. Michelle's personal attention to her clients was noted as a "labor of love" in a Superior Court Judge's written decision.
